Smart Coast California Stakeholder Meeting 10/27

Join us for our Fall Virtual Stakeholder meeting on Thursday, October 27th at 10am via Zoom. The market value for residential properties in select CA areas is at risk under different Sea Level Rise scenarios. Smart Coast California commissioned Milliman to study this risk, in an effort to make plans for the future. This study is critical to evaluating the feasibility of different responses to climate change. Register here
